

Litigation solicitor

An opportunity for an aspiring construction, insolvency and general civil litigator to realise their true potential and accelerate their advancement

If you are sick of being a small fish in a big pond, consigned to endless discovery and research projects, this is your chance to break out. Lawyers in Martelli McKegg's litigation department are given considerable autonomy to run their own files and take the lead counsel role in a wide variety of disputes, all under guidance from leading partners.

We have a position for a friendly, practical lawyer with a minimum of 5+ years PQE.

The position will also cover a broad range of litigation work including:

- construction
- insolvency
- general civil litigation

Ideally you will possess the following:

- a good background knowledge of commercial litigation
- the ability to perceive and tackle underlying issues
- client management skills
- a pragmatic approach to resolving disputes.

Our professional, approachable team will offer you plenty of challenging work, good mentoring and the latest technology.

Martelli McKegg is a leading mid-sized law firm located on the waterfront in Downtown Auckland. We offer the benefits of a strong and growing client base, challenging work and the opportunity for individual advancement.

Our clients range from personal clients requiring residential conveyancing services through to property developers, banks and financial institutions.

If you're ready to take the next step in your career contact us today and make this role yours.
